Willard Swartley Honored By Woodmen of Omaha

The annual award banquet of the Woodmen of Omaha was held Saturday evening at the Elk's Cafeteria.

Highlighting the evening was the presentation of an award to Willard Swartley for his outstanding civic achievement and unselfish work in doing for others. Swartley has worked with Twin Falls County schools for many years.

Paul A. Jones, Western regional manager from Sacramento, Calif., made the presentation. He also awarded 25-year pins to Mrs. Mary Bolton, Mrs. Bertha Babcock, Mrs. Adlo Radovich and Mrs. Mae Gaynor, all Twin Falls.

The Woodmen of Omaha is a national society which has been in existence since 1890.

Jones also thanked local firms who donated prizes for the banquet.

Success

CLEVELAND (AP)

"Now, it's a matter of normal healing," Vic Ippolito, the Indians' team physician, said Sunday after an operation on bones around the eyes of shortstop Larry Brown.

Dr. Ippolito said the operation was "a complete success—it worked out beautifully." The Tribe doctor also said he expects Brown back in the line-up before the end-of-the-season, possibly in four to six weeks.

TIME'S UP

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON—Republican technicians on the national level here are privately concerned over the danger of the party losing one of its few genuinely magical names in next November's elections. In Ohio, former Rep. Robert A. Taft Jr., grandson of a President and son of the late "Mr. Republicans," is the underdog in a fight to preserve the dynasty.

The professionals who run the party machinery were not impressed by Taft's 4-1 victory over the John Birch Society candidate, William Flax, in last week's primary vote for the Republican nomination for Congress in Cincinnati's first district. On the contrary, they were chagrined that Flax, a political wild man, skimmed off more than 6,000 votes from the Taft total. The impression is that Flax didn't campaign hard enough.

OPPONENT LIKENED TO JFK—Be that as it may, Taft cannot afford to let up from here. His Democratic opponent, who was unopposed for nomination, is the urban, witty—and handsome Rep. John J. Gilligan, a 45-year-old redhead who in 1964 became only the third Democrat elected to the first district seat in 16 years. It does not hurt Gilligan, even in Republican Cincinnati, to be hailed by his party as another Jack Kennedy; he will "make Taft's bid to return to national office all the harder."

Moreover, Gilligan comes from an old Cincinnati family, not one of the Taft-like socially first. His great-grandfather operated a fish market in the city more than 100 years ago, and over the years the same Gilligan has been prominent among the comfortable Irish middle-class. A chain of funeral parlors started by Gilligan's great-grandfather is still in the family. Gilligan himself is a Notre Dame graduate, a career Navy veteran of World War II and a former instructor of literature at Xavier University. He is not, in the words of one Republican, "just another Irish politician."

This year's race for the Democratic nomination for governor is a good example of a rather common situation. Democrats have convinced themselves they'll defeat Gov. Robert E. Smylie this year. So many of the persons who would like to be governor are out fighting for the Democratic nomination. Under these circumstances, there's always the chance that the person who actually would be the best candidate won't even file for office. And there's always a possibility that the best of the available candidates won't win the nomination.

Something different is illustrated by the race for county commissioners in Twin Falls County this year. Hardly anyone gets excited about prospects of being elected a county commissioner. There's no particular prestige attached to the position, nor is there any special political power involved. Political patronage is confined to two or three jobs. For the most part, party leaders have a rough time finding candidates who will consent to run for the jobs.

But not this year. Twelve persons are entered in the county commissioner race. Only one of the 12 is assured of his party's nomination with no competition developing for the Democratic nomination in commissioner district No. 2. There may be no precedent for such lively interest in the commissioner positions. Make no mistake, the interest is healthy. For too many years, there has been little or no interest in most offices at the city and county level. It's particularly significant that some of this year's county commissioner candidates have never run for any public office before.

Perhaps some of the new interest will carry over into elections for other echelons of government, such as city and school district. The latter, particularly, regularly fails to attract any interest. This year provides as good an example as needed. Although two trustees must be elected this year for the Twin Falls School District, only the incumbents filed. And it's a foregone conclusion that voter turnout will be negligible.

So far as city elections are concerned, interest has been declining in Twin Falls year after year. Perhaps the lag in interest comes from the fact that no party labels enter into city elections. Or perhaps it could be traced to the fact a sort of "Establishment" has developed to line up acceptable candidates. Regardless of the reason, the lack of interest in city elections is deplorable. The outlook could change at the next biennial if some sort of hot issue—such as garbage cans in alleys, for example—were to develop.

The odds are against it, but it would be pleasing to find new and healthy interest in all elections. And what's wrong with women filing for some of these offices? There's a woman candidate this year for the county commission. Depending on voter response to her candidacy, there could be some other women decide they can contribute to local government. In fact, the way city elections have been avoided by voters in recent years, a determined campaign by a slate of women candidates probably could give women a majority on the city commission. Certainly, it would appear natural for women to seek election to school boards; yet it's rare for a woman to file for school trustee.

Perhaps some of the old opinions about aspiring to public office will be changed by this year's elections. Suddenly, the atmosphere is changing and persons who have never thought about holding public office have become candidates. They may or may not be successful, but everyone gets the idea: You don't have to be a politician to run for office.

Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, who has been strong for conservation measures in the past, apparently favors the proposed dams, although he does not say so much about it publicly. Everybody makes mistakes, but we wish he would not make this particularly disastrous one.—Boston Herald.

THE SITZMARKERS
Utah Governor Calvin Rampton said: "We won't forget this."

And not only Utah, but every other state in the west, if not the nation, should never forget it.

The unforgivable unforgettable is the action by the Northwest Ski Federation, an organization of some 20 ski area operators, against Utah's bid for the Olympics. These ski area operators instead went across the border to support Banff, Canada's bid.

It should be pointed out that the important ski associations of the Northwest, the U.S. Ski Association's northwest division and the Northwest Professional Ski Instructors Association backed the Utah bid.

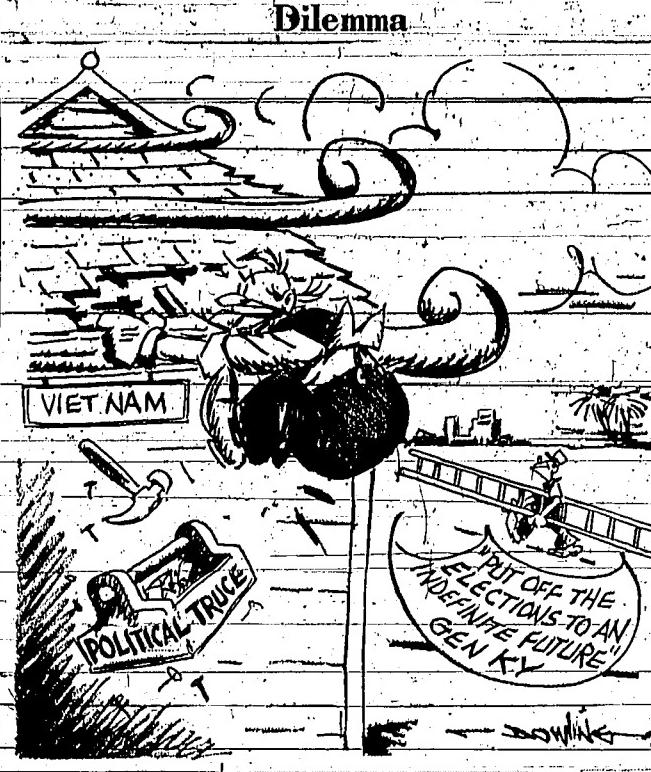

It's all over now. The 1972 Winter Olympics are going to Japan, as was decided in Rome last March. The Northwest operators' action may not have been telling. But the 11th hour telegram to Rome backing Banff as Utah made its valiant bid was plain dirty pool.

It's the only way harassed visitors can be sure to get out of the city to ride an elevator up the Pan American Building and take a helicopter to the airfields.

You'd think from the way it looks when the deer, chipmunks, and the wild foxes move back in and take over the cold deserted concrete canyons.

Well, I would, anyway. I still love New York. I think I'll hang around and see how it's doing.

Healthy Interest

Whichever more than a couple of candidates show an interest in a public office, there's a tendency to refer to the "crowded field." From the viewpoint of candidates, of course, the field is crowded. They also know that anything can happen when several persons aspire to the same office. It's the sort-of-situation that results too frequently from the human desire to be standing in the right place when lightning strikes.

This year's race for the Democratic nomination for governor is a good example of a rather common situation. Democrats have convinced themselves they'll defeat Gov. Robert E. Smylie this year. So many of the persons who would like to be governor are out fighting for the Democratic nomination. And it's a foregone conclusion that voter turnout will be negligible.

So far as city elections are concerned, interest has been declining in Twin Falls year after year. Perhaps the lag in interest comes from the fact that no party labels enter into city elections. Or perhaps it could be traced to the fact a sort of "Establishment" has developed to line up acceptable candidates. Regardless of the reason, the lack of interest in city elections is deplorable. The outlook could change at the next biennial if some sort of hot issue—such as garbage cans in alleys, for example—were to develop.

The odds are against it, but it would be pleasing to find new and healthy interest in all elections. And what's wrong with women filing for some of these offices? There's a woman candidate this year for the county commission. Depending on voter response to her candidacy, there could be some other women decide they can contribute to local government. In fact, the way city elections have been avoided by voters in recent years, a determined campaign by a slate of women candidates probably could give women a majority on the city commission. Certainly, it would appear natural for women to seek election to school boards; yet it's rare for a woman to file for school trustee.

Perhaps some of the new interest will carry over into elections for other echelons of government, such as city and school district. The latter, particularly, regularly fails to attract any interest. This year provides as good an example as needed. Although two trustees must be elected this year for the Twin Falls School District, only the incumbents filed. And it's a foregone conclusion that voter turnout will be negligible.

Death Takes

Mrs. Kirkman,
T. F. Pioneer

Mrs. Kathryn Kirkman, 69, pioneer resident of Twin Falls, died Monday evening at a rest home in Idaho Falls of a long illness.

She was born Dec. 13, 1874, in Fillmore, Utah, and married Lawrence G. Kirkman in the Salt Lake City LDS Temple on March 5, 1904. As a child she moved with her parents to Idaho Falls, Utah, where she lived until coming to Twin Falls with her husband in 1908.

She was then an active member of the LDS Church all her life, teaching classes in her church, Sunday school and LDS Primary. She was first Bishop of Twin Falls' LDS ward from 1910 to 1918 and was also appointed first female president of Twin Falls.

She became Twin Falls Relief Society president in 1921, retiring from that office in 1946. She was a member of the Parent Teacher Association and the Twentieth Century Club.

Her husband, two daughters and one son preceded her in death.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Harold (Phyllis) Minner, Twin Falls; Mrs. Glen J. (Virginia) Nielsen, Ephraim, Utah; Mrs. Milton T. (Dorothy) Rees, Idaho Falls; Mrs. Glen (Ruth) Moon, La Mere, Calif.; Mrs. D. Theron (N o m i) Knight, Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Leo M. (Nell) Ranieri, Castro Valley, Calif.; 20 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services are set for 3 p.m. Thursday at Twin Falls LDS Second Ward. Friends may call at the church from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. Thursday.

Harrison Said Good After Crash

DUBOIS, Wyo. (AP)—The direct descendant of two presidents, William Henry Harrison, Jr., said Monday he is in good condition after spending two nights in rugged, northwestern Wyoming mountains after his plane was downed.

Harrison, about 43, had been missing and object of an extensive search, since Saturday, in a flight from Jackson to Sheridan, Wyo.

Harrison was brought out of the rugged Caldwell Basin country 35 miles northeast of here Monday.

URGES EDUCATION STUDY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The executive vice president of the American Jewish Committee, citing "ominous signs" of anti-Semitism in Austria, has urged the Austrian Government to send educators to the United States to study American methods of civic education.

N.Y. NursesThreatening To Resign

NEW YORK (AP)—The city's 21 municipal hospitals still were turning away all non-emergency patients today in a rash effort to reduce caseloads by Monday when 1,400 nurses have threatened to resign.

Six upstate hospitals stood ready to accept between 140 and 160 tuberculous patients from the Bronx Municipal Hospital Center.

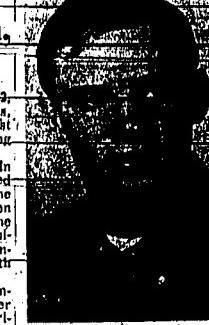

The only hope for preventing the scheduled May 21 resignations over nurses' salary demands appears to lie with mediator George Moskowitz, who is expected to offer settlement recommendations today.

The city has said it will accept his proposals, but a spokesman for the New York State Nurses Association said the group would wait to see them.

The municipal hospitals contain 17,500 beds. About 15,000 patients now are hospitalized. Nonmunicipal hospitals would not be affected.

The nurses are seeking an increase from the present annual minimum of $5,150 a year to $6,400. The city's last public offer was $5,750. They also are asking for an end to assignment of nonnursing jobs, and higher meal and uniform allowances.

Cab Driver in Custody for Shootings

DETROIT (AP)—A former taxicab driver who police said vowed to "start shooting Communists" two months ago was also shot Monday after the fatal shooting of a member of the United Southern Workers party in downtown Detroit.

Two college students described as members of the Young Socialist Alliance were also shot Monday in the party's office here, one of them critically wounded.

Police jailed Edward Waniolek, 40, Detroit, and said they would seek a murder warrant against him.

Waniolek was seized four hours after the slaying of Leo Bernard, 28, and wounding of Ian Edward Garrett, 22, and Walter Graham, 10, all of Detroit. He surrendered meekly in a library.

Bernard, who was dead on arrival at a Detroit hospital, was shot once in the head. Garrett and Graham, students at Wayne State University, each were shot four times with an automatic pistol.

Graham was hospitalized. In critical condition, Garrett was described as fair.

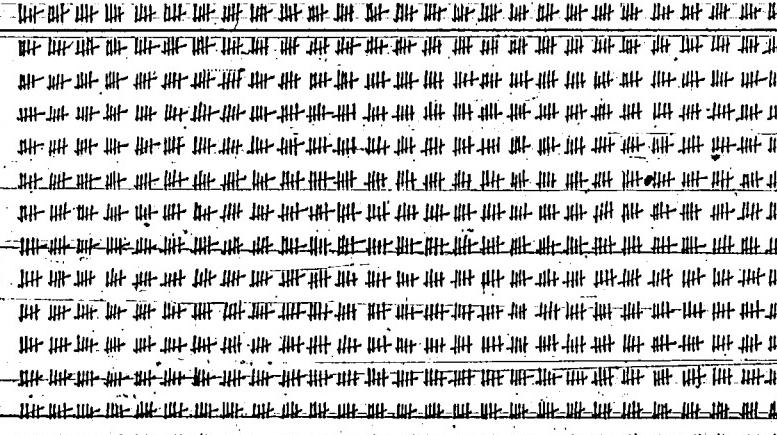

The shootings occurred in the Eugene V. Debs Hall.

NEW YORK (AP)—James H. Meredith, the first known Negro to break the color barrier at the University of Mississippi, has toed his hat into New York City's political arena.

Meredith said Monday night he plans to run in tomorrow's inaugural Democratic candidate seeking a seat as a delegate at next April's state constitutional convention.

Meredith, 33, now a student at Columbia University Law School, will be one of three candidates running against a slate backed by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell.

The only hope for preventing the scheduled May 21 resignations over nurses' salary demands appears to lie with mediator George Moskowitz, who is expected to offer settlement recommendations today.

The city has said it will accept his proposals, but a spokesman for the New York State Nurses Association said the group would wait to see them.

HEARING SET

BOISE (AP) — An Idaho State Prison convict who says he was denied legal rights when he pleaded guilty to a rape charge in Jefferson County in 1963 will get a hearing May 31.

Jose Martinez, serving a life sentence on conviction of rape, said in a petition for freedom on a writ of habeas corpus that he was denied aid of a Mexican consulate when he pleaded guilty.

Martinez clarified in the petition his English was poor and said he was told he would be returned to Mexico if he pleaded guilty.

The hearing on the petition was granted by Third District Court Judge Charles R. Donaldson.

THEME ANNOUNCED

BOISE (AP) — The relationship between industrial growth and governmental planning was listed Tuesday as the theme for a regional meeting of the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho.

"What Every Woman Should Know About Her Family's Financial Affairs" will be outlined by Edward J. Barrett, trust officer, First Security Bank of Idaho.

"How to Make Household Dollars go Further" will be discussed by Mrs. Adeline Lileborg, former Mrs. Idaho and Mrs. U.S. Savings Bonds Pocatello.

A special attraction at the forum will be the "Hats and History" under the direction of Joanna Maitland, of the Sparry and Hutchinson Co., Boise. Mrs. Maitland will be assisted by members of Credit Women's Breakfast Club as models.

The hat-revive fashions will date from 1868 to the present time. Refreshments will be served by the Cassia County Homemakers Extension Club members.

Romania Not Commenting On Policies

BUCHAREST, Romania (AP) — Authorities in Bucharest refuse to comment on reports that Romania has called on Russia to revamp its military policies in Eastern Europe because Soviet troops no longer are needed if Warsaw Pact nations.

Spokesmen for the Romanian Foreign Ministry would neither confirm nor deny the reports.

The government news agency Agerpres said it had "no information" about Romanian notes to Russia and other Warsaw Pact members.

The New York Times said today that Romania reportedly has told the Soviet Union and the other pact allies that the presence of Russian troops in member-countries no longer is justified.

The Times, in a dispatch from Bucharest, said Romania reportedly has warned it no longer is willing to pay toward the cost of stationing Soviet troops in the pact countries.

Soviet forces were pulled out of Romania in 1948, but there are said to be 24 Soviet divisions in East Germany, 20,000 troops in Poland and four to five divisions in Hungary. All three nations have been threatening uprisings against Soviet authority over the past 10 years.

The Times said the Romanians also assailed the fact that command over the Warsaw Pact forces remains in Soviet hands and insisted that it should be rotated.

Grand Council Fire Scheduled

The newly organized Minidoka Junior High Camp Fire Girls group is getting ready to attend the Grand Council Fire set for Friday in Twin Falls.

The group has made sit-upons and are designing a flag. Members recently made a trip to the Snake River Research Center Weather Station, where John Cline gave detailed explanations of all the weather instruments and showed the girls how weather maps are read.

As summer approaches the unit will make camp craft hours. The first project will be learning various methods of cooking outdoors.

Union Urges GE to Enter Negotiations

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The AFL-CIO insisted today that General Electric Co. enter joint negotiations with eight unions seeking to coordinate nationwide bargaining for the firm's workers.

Responding to GE's refusal to meet with an eight-union bargaining group, an AFL-CIO spokesman said "We have the right to have anybody we damn well want" participants in the talks.

Chief company negotiator Philip D. Moore warned that the union tactics could bring on a major strike in the electrical industry this fall.

Moore, in a letter to John H. Callahan of the AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, accused the union of "subterfuge" in naming representatives of the seven other unions as advisors on an IUE negotiating committee.

The IUE and the seven other unions, trying to bargain for more than 180,000 GE and Westinghouse Electric Co. workers, are drafting what reportedly will be a stiff reply to Moore's letter.

The eight unions are seeking a substantial boost in estimated average wages of $2.80 per hour from GE and Westinghouse. The figure rises to $3.25 per hour when fringe benefits are added, according to union estimates.

The seven other unions in the joint-bargaining effort are the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; United Auto Workers; International Association of Machinists; Sheet Metal Workers; Allied Industrial Workers; Federation of Technical Engineers and American Flint Glass Workers. They are backed by AFL-CIO President George Meany.

LDS Leader's Services Set

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill. (AP) — Funeral services will be held Wednesday for a branch president of the LDS Church who was gunned down when he tried to intervene in an argument between his niece and her former husband.

The victim was Dallas Edward Lee, 48, of Marion. Charged—with murder—was James Dodd, 20, of West Frankfort who was captured an hour after the slaying. He was held without bond.

Contest Law

EDMOND, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Marla Hood, 21, a pilot, has been charged with what she was getting into when she took advantage of sunny spring weather to show off her front lawn wearing a bikini bathing suit.

Before she finished, police arrived with complaint accusing her of indecent exposure. The complaint, circulated by Jack Smith, 30, who said he is pastor of a non-denominational country church, had been signed by five neighbors.

Some Edmond residents hired a lawyer for Mrs. Hood, The Lawyer, Don Manners, said his clients want to contest law which forbids them to wear bathing suits in their own yard.

Retired Fleet May Prepare For Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — One more of the four battalions now in the Navy's mothball fleet—including the famed Missouri—may be reactivated for Viet Nam duty, testimony made public by a House subcommittee indicated today.

"We have been considering it," Vice Adm. Lot Ensey testified. "It would have advantages. No question."

Ensey, deputy chief of naval operations, testified at a closed session of a House Appropriations subcommittee March 10, ten days earlier at a Senate committee hearing. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was questioned along similar lines.

McNamara said then that the cost of returning the vessels to service had been considered more than a year ago against costs for alternate forms of firepower—and frankly the battleship didn't look attractive then.

But Ensey's later testimony indicated the Navy, at least, has not written off the idea of bringing the 16-inch guns of the battleship to bear on Southeast Asia targets.

Idaho Move Is Under Way to Draft U.S. Army Officer Out of Viet Nam

AN KHE, Viet Nam (AP) — There is a move under way in Idaho to draft a young U.S. Army officer away from the war in Viet Nam.

A group of supporters is trying to have Capt. George A. Willmore, 31, of Rexburg, Idaho, nominated as the Democratic candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives from Idaho's Second Congressional District.

Willmore's 27-year-old wife, the former Judy Jones of Idaho Falls, is already campaigning to win her husband the nomination at the state Democratic convention in June.

Willmore is stationed at An Khe 220 miles northeast of Saigon. He pilots helicopters of the 11th Aviation Group, "B" Company, 220th Assault Helicopter Division. His job is flying First Cavalry Division troops into battle.

Army regulations won't permit Willmore to campaign for the nomination, but if he is drafted as a nominee, he can take leave to campaign for the general election.

"I have been authorized to campaign on issues that concern my constituents in Idaho, and on domestic and national basis," the good-looking "veteran" of more than 350 combat missions said.

Willmore sat in the officers club, sipped at a glass of ginger ale, and ignored the thunderous applause as American artillery pumped round after round through the black night to the Viet Cong installation in the hills surrounding the First Cavalry Camp.

"My political aspirations didn't start in Viet Nam," he said. "My dad—Ephraim—Willmore—has been in politics a number of years."

"I campaigned with President Kennedy. I've read every book written by John F. Kennedy. I studied political science, business and finance at Ricks Junior College and the University of Idaho."

Willmore quotes Shakespear and Ralph Waldo Emerson on perseverance, and reads such things as "Thomas Jefferson and His World" for relaxation.

"If I can get the support and the people will give me an opportunity to present my ideas, I can represent their faith and trust," he said.

The 6-foot-2, 190-pound Willmore—a standout when he played center and linebacker for the Ricks football team—thrives on challenges.

"I've got a theory that I pursue. A lot of people say that somebody's gotta lose, but I think somebody's gotta win." Willmore filled a mission for the LDS Church for two years as a non-paid volunteer before converting his Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) status into an active commission three years ago.

Wants Gifts

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — French-born actress Corinne Calvet contends in Los Angeles that she should be allowed to keep $368,000 in gifts from investment fortune heir Donald Scott. Scott, 38, sued Miss Calvet demanding that she return the gifts and that he be awarded $200,000 in damages. His suit stated that he had given her the gifts to prevent her from telling his wife about their relationship.

Willmore supporters face two opponents in their bid to have the state convention draft their candidate, A. W. Brunt of Idaho Falls, a former Democratic state chairman, and former state Atty. Gen. Frank L. Benard, a former state senator. Incumbent Rep. George V. Hansen, a Republican, is seeking reelection.

6:30 Friday 2SL 7, 8—Anatomy of defense, color special, is a salute to the U.S. armed forces for Armed Forces Day.

8:00 Friday 7SL—Georgie Stein, drama special: “Yes Is for a Very Young Man,” a two-act play about a rural French family in Savoy, which is torn between duty to the country and a desire for personal revenge during the Nazi occupation. It is performed by the Theatre Company of Boston, with Lisa Richards and Burns Benning.

8:30 Tuesday, 11; 9:30 2SL 10:30 3—1965 National Drivers Test, a follow up of last year’s test taken by 50 million Americans.

The Rounders’ Is New Show For ABC Network This Fall

“The Rounders,” a eight-part story of two cowboys and their many adventures with a wheeler-dealer ranch owner, is one of the new shows to be presented on the ABC Television Network starting in the fall.

The half-hour comedy will be colorcast Tuesdays, 8:30 to 9 p.m. PDT.

Sponsors for the series will be Seachem Products Inc., through Kenyon and Eckhardt, Inc., and R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., through William Esty Company, Inc.

Cowpokes Ben Jones and Howdy Lewis, once happy travelers on the cowboy trail, find themselves, at series’ opening, in debt and bogged to Jim Ed Love, wily owner of the JL Ranch. To break Jim Ed’s hold on his sabotaged financial schemes, Ben and Howdy command their own special band of men. But with freedom imminent, disaster strikes, plunging the two cowhands deeper in debt and forcing them to accept another of Jim Ed’s super-sweet contracts.

Adding to their woes is Ben’s horse, Old Fooler, the most cantankerous and unpredictable critter ever to animate a television series. A horse with a mind of its own, Old Fooler adds to Ben’s troubles by always doing the wrong thing at the right time. Yet Ben has an unquenched fondness for the ornithic animal.

This laugh will be sustained by veterans and new actors with a fine flair for comedy. Cliff Willis brings to the role of Jim Ed the brand of humor he has Government Policy Prevents Televising of Space Walk.

Only a government policy decision is preventing Americans from seeing an astronaut walk in space on live television, Elmer W. Lower, President of ABC News, said recently in a Washington speech.

“There’s no technical barrier to televising from space,” he said. “The Russians have done it, and transmitted the drama of a space walk throughout the world.”

Lower called attention to the Gemini-Titan 9 mission scheduled for Tuesday. “As usual, we’ll only hear what’s going on. Our ABC producers are going to great lengths to simulate a space walk, but it can’t compare with the real thing.”

Lower, speaking before the Higher Education Group, likened education’s fight for academic freedom to the news media’s fight for freedom of information and freedom of access.

“As government has grown more complex and played a role in the very roots of both the academic and journalistic worlds,” Lower said, he cited President James Madison on the subject: “A popular government without popular information or the means of acquiring it, is but a prologue to a farce, or a tragedy, or perhaps both.”

The heavyweight championship fight between Cassius Clay and Henry Cooper will be televised live, via satellite, from London on “ABC’s Wide World of Sports” at 2:30 p.m. PDT, May 21, it was announced jointly by Roone Arledge, vice president and executive producer of ABC Sports, and Mike Malitz, executive vice president of Main Bond Inc., promoters of the fight.

This will be the first championship fight ever telecast live from Europe to the United States, and it will be shown in its entirety.

This also will be the first time since Floyd Patterson defeated Brian London in Indianapolis in May 1959 that a heavyweight championship fight will be carried live-on home television.

“The Rounders” will be produced by Ed Adamson who has been closely involved in the production and writing of many successful television series. His credits include “Rawhide,” “The Virginian,” “The Legend of Jesse James” and “The Longest Day.”

Chris Schenkel will be the blow-by-blow commentator for ABC, and Howard Cosell will handle the color commentary.

Stars Signed For Berle Show

Bobby Rydell, one of the most versatile young stars in show business, and vivacious young singer—actress Donna Loren have signed as regular cast members of ABC-TV’s “The Milton Berle Show,” which premieres in color on the network this fall in the Friday, 9-10 p.m. (PDT) time period.

From its inception, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) “was supposed to work in the public spotlight,” Lower pointed out. Yet, he complained, the space agency does not so function.

The ABC News President also decried the lack of government efforts to improve broadcasting facilities in Viet Nam. Short-wave transmissions between the United States and Saigon are routed through Paris by the Vietnamese government. A simple remedy, he said, would be action by the U.S. government to arrange transmissions to the nearby Philippines where an undersea cable links the islands with the U.S. mainland.

“Denial of freedom of access and freedom of information strikes at the very roots of both the academic and journalistic worlds,” Lower said. He cited President James Madison on the subject: “A popular government without popular information or the means of acquiring it, is but a prologue to a farce, or a tragedy, or perhaps both.”

Today's Market and Financial Report

Tuesday, May 17, 1966 Twin Falls Times-News 11

Stocks

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was higher early this afternoon even though lively rally oscillated on news of the failure of the Agena satellite to achieve orbit, ruining the Gemini 9 mission.

The market was moving up strongly with the tickers tape three minutes late when news of the Gemini failure came over the wires. Wall Street hesitated, trading slowed and some of the aerospace issues weakened.

By noon, however, the trend was still higher, the Dow Jones industrial average showing a gain of 3.00 to $78.43.

The rally after a monotonous series of jolting declines, was regarded as "technic" — in nature, no big change having occurred in the economic news.

The market was mixed at the start, with the various drilling oil slightly. The lead in ground fairly well so bargain hunting began coming in to pick up stock at lower current levels, brokers said.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .51 to 316.0 with industrials up 1.4, rail off .5 and utilities up .3.

The aerospace group was handicapped at the start when Boeing opened with a decline of 4 points on news of a mishap to one of its airliners as it was about to take off from Kansas City. The stock recovered all but a point of its loss, then reversed and showed a 3-point loss as the rally hesitated.

Lockheed, prime contractor for the Agena satellite, was off a fraction; as were Douglas Aircraft and General Dynamics. United Aircraft held a fractional gain.

General Motors held a gain exceeding a point, Chrysler rose nearly a point and Ford was steady.

DuPont's climb of 2 points and Eastman Kodak's gain of 1/2 bolstered the averages.

Gains of a point or so by New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad were offset in a mixed rail group by losses of a point by Chesapeake & Ohio and nearly 2 by Illinois Central.

Up about a point were Zenith, Westinghouse Electric, High Voltage Engineering, U.S. Smelting and such major airlines as American, Eastern and United.

Packard Bell was off 1/2 at 27% on a delayed opening of 3,000 shares following news of its agreement to sell its assets to Singer Co. Singer (ex dividend) was fractionally higher.

SCM recovered 2 points. American South African Investment was a 2-point loser as gold mining stocks backed away from recent strength.

Prices were generally higher. In active trading on the American Stock Exchange, Soliton Devices and Syntex (3x dividends) spurred about 2 points. National Vitreous and Alloys Unlimited about 2 each. Gains of a point or more made by Chromalloy, Molybdenum and Simonson Precision. Hygrade Food dropped .2 and Savoy Industries 1. Fotochrome and American Electronica were among fractionally losers.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged.

Dow-Jones Averages

30 Industrials, 864.14, off .33. 20 Rails, 220.54, of 2.01. 15 Utilities, 135.72, off .03. 65 Stocks, 303.74, off 1.88.

Supreme Court Agrees to Speedy Review of State Versus Baseball Decision

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Wisconsin Supreme Court agreed Monday to a speedy review of a lower court ruling striking the National League in violation of state antitrust law for stripping Milwaukee of major league baseball. The high court's agreement set the stage for a stay of the lower court order directing the Atlanta Braves back to Milwaukee by Wednesday in the absence of a 1967 expansion plan that would include the Wisconsin city. Pending on the expansion plan's submission passed without incident at noon Monday. Circuit Court Judge Elmer W. Roller said he expected to rule sometime Tuesday on whether to grant the stay.

Reds Hit Peak When Pinson Has Hot Bat

NEW YORK (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds are at their peak when Vada Pinson is on bat. In fact, it usually has been the case in past years and it's no different this season because the fleet outfielder has hit safely in eight straight games and the Reds are playing their best baseball of the campaign, winning eight of their last 10. Pinson, who compiled the majors' longest hitting streak last year, 27 games, has moved into second place in the National League batting race with a .339 average. During his latest streak he has collected 14 hits in 32 times at bat for a .438 pace and gained 40 points.

Joe Morgan of Houston, the leader, slumped 10 points to .360 in last week's games. He had six hits in 19 tries.

Jim Hart of San Francisco climbed one place to third despite a 13-point drop to .336. In the American League, Minnesota's Tony Oliva, back in his accustomed first-place position, Olivia, battling shoulder pain the past two seasons, took over the top spot with a .368 mark while Baltimore's Frank Robinson slumped 11 points to .375 and second place.

Brooks Robinson, also of the Orioles, held third place although he slipped six points to .348.

Hank Aaron of Atlanta hit two homers last week, increasing his leading NL total to 11. San Francisco's Willie Mays, the runner-up "homers" with 10, remained the pacesetter in runs batted in with 24.

The figures include Sunday games.

Boston's George Scott is the AL home run leader with 11 while Brooks Robinson is No. 1 in RBI with 28.

Coyotes Qualify For NAIA Meet

NAMPA — The College of Idaho is eligible to enter the district five NAIA baseball tournament at Billings, Montana, after shutting out Northwest Nazarene College 2-0 Monday afternoon.

Gary Gavola pitched the College of Idaho to the win. Buzz Burner and Dave Barton brought in the runs.

The game ended a best of three series. The College of Idaho won the first game 6-2 and Northwest Nazarene took the second 20-8.

Gorham Picked For PGA Post

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Bob Gorham of Chattanooga, Tenn., has been named press secretary of the Professional Golfers Association.

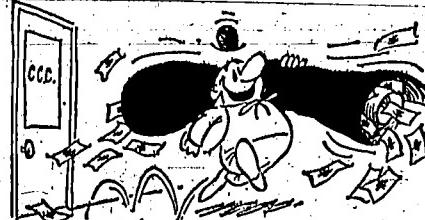

He succeeds (Doc) Griffin, who resigned effective July 14 to become personal assistant to Arnold Palmer.

150,000 Expected For Fish Opener

BOISE (AP) — The Idaho Fish and Game Department said Monday as many as 150,000 persons may turn out for June 4 opening of the general trout fishing season but it emphasized that was just a guess.

The department said nearly 180,000 persons held year-long fishing licenses in Idaho in 1965, in addition to 26,000 who bought five-day tourist permits and nearly 100,000 who bought day-to-day licenses.

Clay to Present London With Its First Title Fight

By The Associated Press

Cassius Clay will give London its first heavyweight title fight in 58 years and Jose Torres will risk his light heavyweight crown at Shea Stadium in New York Saturday, all within the space of about five hours. Clay is rated a 5½-1 favorite to add Henry Cooper, the English champion, to his list of victims in a 16-round match expected to draw a sellout crowd of 46,000 to the open air Arsenal Stadium.

Clay, deeply involved in problems with his draft board in London, has been subdued figure in London compared to the giddy young who fought Cooper there in 1963. Cooper knocked Clay down in the fourth round of that fight, but was stopped in the next round on cuts. That was before Clay won the title.

The announcement was made by Jackie Robinson, general manager, at a press luncheon. Robustelli has a two-year contract. No salary terms were announced but best guessers put it in the range of $20,000-$25,000.

"If you don't get excitement a lot of people will buy the product," said Robustelli. "The Dodgers, a new team in the league which is considered tops in the minors, have yet to sign the rest of their coaching staff, or their team, and line up a playing field."

Robustelli, a defensive end, was with the Los Angeles Rams from 1951 to 1955, and the New York Giants from 1955 to 1964.

Brazil Needs One Game to Oust Spain

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Darkhorse Brazil had defending-champion Spain within a single game of elimination when darkness halted the fifth set of the 1966 and final matches Friday in the second round of the European Zone Davis Cup tennis competition.

Father Thomas Koch of Brazil tied the series at Barcelona 2-2 by beating Spain's No. 1 ace, Manuel Santana, in straight sets, 7-5, 6-3, 6-1.

Then Jose Edison Mandarino of Brazil took the court against Spain's young Juan Gisbert for a marathon struggle at the Royal Tennis Club where the Spaniards upset the United States last year and qualified to meet Australia in the Challenge Round.

The match lasted 4½ hours and was halted because of poor visibility, with Mandarino leading 7-5, 3-6, 9-11, 8-6, 5-4. The battle will be resumed Tuesday with Gisbert facing sudden death, serving.

In other Davis Cup matches, Britain defeated Hungary 3-2 at Budapest and South Africa downed The Netherlands 4-1. Schenckington, 4-0, to enter the quarter-finals.

Rehabilitate Given Chance To Do Better

BALTIMORE (AP) — Pimlico officials were informed Monday that another Kentucky Derby also ran, Robert Lehman's Rehabilitate, will be given a chance to redeem himself Saturday in the $150,000-added Preakness.

Rehabilitate is the sixth Derby horse behind winner Kauai King lined up for a return engagement.

The three closest to Kauai King — Advocator, Blue Skyer and Stupendous — are due to be entered Thursday morning, as well as seventh-place Ambersold and the 11th finisher, William and Mary.

Rehabilitate was sixth at Louisville. The official chart caller observed he "closed a big gap" following a sluggish beginning.

A spokesman for Lehman said in New York that Rehabilitate probably will be shipped to Pimlico late in the week along with Mrs. Edward Lasker's Indulito, winner of the Withers Mile.

Trainer Hirsch Jacobs also plans to send either Exhibitionist or Understanding for the 1 ½-mile race. Understanding was fourth in the Withers.

A 10th probable entry, Mrs. Helen Jennings' Exceedingly, is stabled at nearby Laurel Race Track.

Mike Ford's Kauai King is due for his tuneup for his assault on the second leg of the Triple Crown for 3-year-olds Tuesday morning.

Trainer Henry Forrest plans to send the son of Native Dancer for one mile. Trainer Jim Padgett also will work Blue Skies, owned by his father and Hugh Grant.

Reginald L. Webster's Ambler is scheduled for his major pre-race spin Wednesday.

NAMED COACH
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — John Smith, former star swimmer at the University of Michigan, was appointed men's swimming coach at Vanderbilt University Monday, replacing Wayne Cole, who resigned.

Memorial Day 500 Shapes up as Battle Between Andretti, Clark

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — The golden anniversary 500-mile sweepstakes May 30 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway shaped up today as a potential match race between American drivers Mario Andretti and Scotland's world road-racing champion Jiminy Clark.

Andretti, 22, and Clark, 31, faced the day's five qualifiers at 161.355 m.p.h. with one lap over 162. But he will have to start in the seventh of the three-car rows because of Saturday's qualifiers will hold their positions.

Ten starting spots were left to be filled in the final trials next Saturday and Sunday. The 23 qualified cars averaged 160.575 against 158.052 for the entire field last year.

Drivers who beat Foyt in pole position Saturday and record record of 161.233 for the 10-mile race against the clock were Al Unser, Clark, George Snider of Clark qualified a new Lotus-Ford for the No. 2 starting spot at 141.144 m.p.h. The Scot won the $400,000 race from the ninth position last year, parking pole winner Al J. Foyt in the first turn. Foyt led later but a broken transmission finally put him out of the race.

Chuck Rodger, 38, of Indianapolis, a noted midget car driver who had started in two 500s was killed in one of four crashes.

Gurney was the fourth of the top-ranking Grand Prix racers to leave the field. He stood No. 4 in the world last year. Also in the line-up besides Andretti

Clark are Jackie Stewart, Dumbarton, Scotland, No. 1; and Graham Hill, London, No. 4, both rookies in the 500.

Other rookies who qualified but at speeds that may not keep them in the line-up were Gary Condon, Garden Grove, Calif., 158.658, and Art Pollard, Medford, Ore., 157.985. After all of the qualification runs, the 33 "newer" cars will make up the starting field.

Roger Ward of Indianapolis, two-time winner of the 500, headed the field at 159.482 Saturday after engine trouble last year interrupted his string of 14 straight wins. He will team with Hill and Stewart on the team of millionaires John Mcconnell Jr., Houston, Tex.

Also in the line-up were Johnny Boyd, Fresno, Calif., who has started the last 11 Indianapolis races at 159.394, and Don Branson, Indianapolis, Ill.

New Is Name For Army's Grid Team

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — New is the name for Army football — new coach, new quarterback, new running star, and a pair of new pass receiving aces. The Cadets showed their newness and some of the rawness that goes with it, Saturday night in the annual intrasquad game that climaxes spring practice. Watching from the pressbox roof was Tom Cahill, ending his third full day as Army football coach.

Cahill, West Point freshman coach and the man in charge of sophomore converted to end since Paul Dotzler suddenly quit as quarterback. Steele, who partied for Shutt, Carolina, will be Army's first Negro varsity player, was settled on for only football player, is rated the top prospect up from the freshman team.

Saturday night's brightest star was Carl Woerner, a slanting, shifty 200-pound tailback, strong and fast. As a sophomore flanker last fall, he did not carry the ball.

"He was wasted out there," Cahill said.

Two plebes, Jim O'Toole and Steve Lindell, were opposing quarterbacks, switching sides at halftime. Both did a lot of throwing and Lindell kicked two field goals for the Blacks, who beat the Golds 13-9.

"It wouldn't pick one over the other right now, but they're our quarterbacks," Cahill said.

"They'll make sophomore mistakes, but the only why they'll develop is by playing."

The two primary targets were

Gary Steele, a 6-foot-5, 215-pound piolet, and Bob Szegoly,

Minnesota, 13, 11, 422, 5.

Washington, 10, 18, .567, 10.

New York, 10, 18, .533, 10½.

Kansas City, 0, 18, .500, 10½.

Boston, 8, 20, .580, 12.
